

Feed Back Report from Alumni

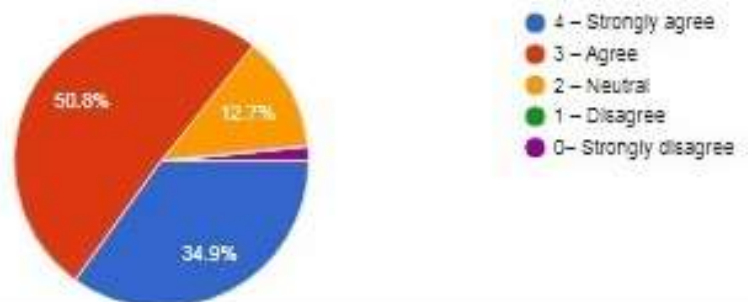

1. The adequateness of the courses offered in the programme

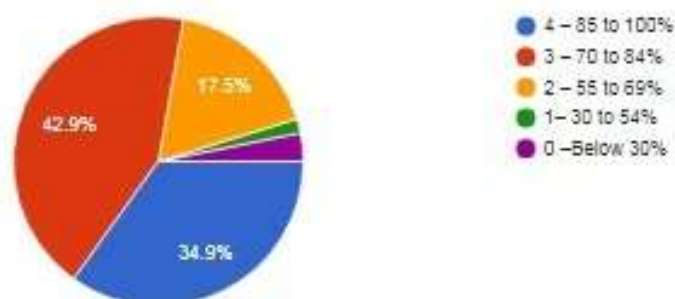

2. The sufficiency of syllabus content to bridge the gap between academia and industry

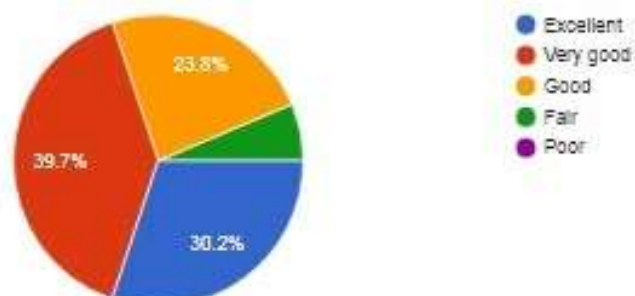

3. The curriculum in relation to your current professional standards

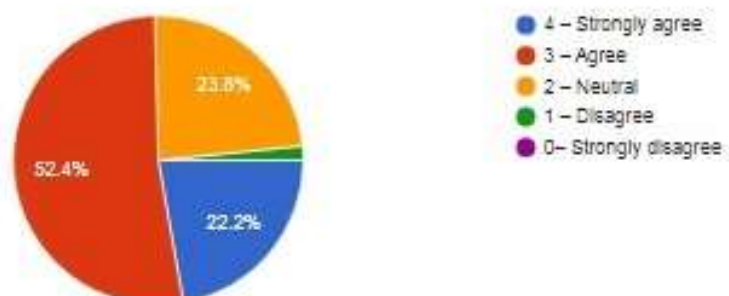

4. The skills acquired from the curriculum to face the industry challenges/requirements

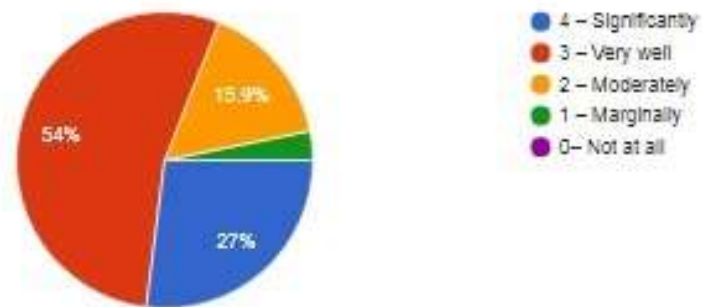

5. The institute's library, laboratory and equipment adequateness for practical exposure

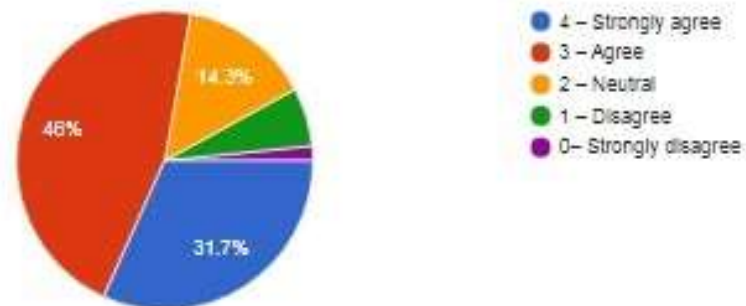

6. The offering of the electives in relation to technology advancements

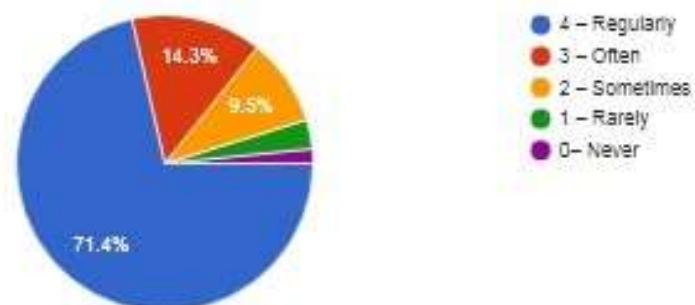

7. The design of the courses in terms of extra learning or self-learning

8. Use of Innovative teaching methods (Group discussion, field exercises, role play & others)

9. The competence and support offered by the teachers

10. The institute's support and contribution for the overall development of student

